The Junior Welfare League of Sumter is an organization dedicated to community service. The Sumter Little Theatre is a recipient of both financial and volunteer support. Because of this investment, SLT continues to be a viable asset to the quality of life for citizens of all ages. It is with grateful appreciation that SLT dedicates the production of "Lost in Yonkers" to the members of the Junior Welfare League of Sumter.

CAST NOTES

Marcy Burnett (Bella) Formerly Marcy Heath, she was married last September after love bloomed in the light booth here at SLT. Marcy and her husband Kendy met when they worked together on "The Boys Next Door" last season. She's now living a life-long dream with Kendy out in the country with room for lots of dogs and cats! Marcy has appeared in "The Foreigner," "Lettice and Lovage," "Rumors" and "Oliver" at SLT, but she feels that Bella is perhaps the most challenging role of all.

Ryan Flaherty (Jay) We've watched Ryan grow up here at SLT. He's been a student in the Theatre School for eight years and has participated in many productions both onstage and backstage. Last year, he attended the South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts in Drama. He's a junior at Sumter High School and he plans to major in drama in college.

T. J. Jones (Grandma) SLT audiences will remember T.J.'s performance as Maria Merilli, the jealous wife of the opera star in "Lend Me a Tenor." Last year T.J. graduated magna cum laude from the University of South Carolina with a degree in education, and now she's teaching seventh grade Language Arts at Bates Middle School. She's a storyteller and writer with two works in progress: a collection of Traditional Irish Folktales set in verse, and The Journal of a First Year Teacher.

Jody Osborne (Louie) Jody is an engineer with the SCDOT in Camden. He lives in Sumter with his wife Charlene. Jody has appeared in or worked on over 40 productions in his quarter century of "unpaid professional theatre." He was last seen at SLT in several character roles in "Dearly Departed." Osborne states that he has had a wealth of roles during his theatre career "from a leading man, to the third spear carrier from the left."

John M. Osteen (Eddie) This is John's first season with SLT. He worked backstage on "The Glass Menagerie" in November and now he's in front of the curtain. He's the assistant manager at Jewelry Wholesale and a member of the Sumter Civic Chorale and the Trinity Singers.

CAST NOTES

Diane Plott (Gert) This is Diane's first time "on the boards" at SLT, but her onstage experience goes back twenty-five years. She has appeared in "Bury the Dead," "The Thurber Carnival" and "The Man Who Came To Dinner," and gave an outstanding performance in "The Night of January 16th" at the Brevard Little Theatre in Brevard, NC. She is also active with the Shaw's theatre group. Diane was our sound technician for Lend Me a Tenor.

Patrick Williams (Artie) Patrick attends High Hill Middle School. He is a fourth year drama student in the SLT Theatre School. He has appeared in "ABC (America Before Columbus)" and "Charlotte's Web."

Charles Fuller's Pulitzer Prize Winning Drama

"A Soldier's Play"

April 11-15 and 18-21, 1996

This is a powerful story of a murder investigation on an army base in Louisiana in 1942. A black army sergeant is shot twice and killed on his way back to the base after a long night of drinking in the segregated town of Tynin, Louisiana. The black soldiers suspect the local Klan. To prevent a riot, the officers order an investigation and the Army assigns Capt. Richard Davenport, a black lawyer, to investigate. What he discovers is more shocking than the murder itself.
